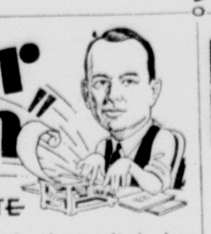
"Our Town" by J. B. White



Back in prehistoric times, it is believed, the Eastern and Western hemispheres were so closely linked that primitive man found it easy to direct his migratory movements from one to the other. If there was not a complete union, there was at least a physical condition approximating it.

Now there is talk of restoring that condition by means of a highway that shall reach across the Artic wastes of the Far North, to Yukon, Alaska, and thence to Siberia by means of a tunnel under Bering Straits. This plan is properly referred to as "the greatest road building project of modern times."

How much of this is an engineering dream and how much of it is based on the hope of profitable returns is not quite clear, although the statement is made that it is being given consideration by financial interests in both the East and the West. The vast mineral and oil wealth of the northland are some of the inducements that make the scheme attractive, it is said. Recent discoveries have revealed that there is a wealth of pitchblende, gold, silver, copper and other mineral deposits in the sub-Arctic regions. The estimated cost is placed at half a billion.

Certainly a project of this nature appeals strongly to the imagination because of adventure, profit and pleasure. It points to the future possibility of motor tours that will truly encompass the world.

If you find a live business that is making money, or a town that is going ahead and making progress, you can look somewhere in that concern or community for people who have the fire of enthusiasm.

They do something more than put in their time on their job or on their community tasks. They put some life and pep into whatever they undertake. They are always saying in effect, "Come on, boys, we can do this thing that we want done if we only try." They energize other folk, their confidence and faith is infectious and those concerns and towns feel the impulse of their enthusiasm.

People like to buy goods of a concern in which that spirit is evident, and they like to live and do business in a town where much people are active and influential.

"THE THREE WISE GUYS"

The combination of drama, laughter and romance that Damon Runyon introduces in his inimitable fiction, comes to the screen at the Cameron Theatre Thursday June 18, with Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's adaption of his prize-winning story. "The Three Wise Guys."

Here is a story practically made to order for the screen. Damon Runyon writes so vividly of life as we see it that his stories provide natural material for art of the movies.

Robert Young and Betty Furness have the romantic leads. The supporting cast consists of Raymond Walburn, Thurston Hall, Bruce Cabot, Donald Meek, Herman Bing, Harvey Stephens and Harry Tyler. Harry Raph was the producer and George Seitz directed.

NATIONAL HALL PICNIC CELEBRATION JUNE 28TH

The big event of the month is the All Day Picnic at National Hall Sunday June 28 in Cameron.

Candidates for state and district offices will speak. The program will begin at 11 a. m. with a concert by Baca's 12 piece Brass Band and at noon barbecue, sausage and chicken plate lunches will be served at 25c each. Cold beer and soft drinks will be sold on the ground.

Judge R. B. Stanford, secretary of state and personal representative of Governor Allred, will deliver a patriotic address in the afternoon. Hon. B. P. Matocha will be master of ceremonies.

Frank B. Tirey and Bob Poage, both candidates for cnogress will speak and then will follow an address by Dr. W. R. Newton, candidate for the state senate.

Candidates for representative will also speak.

Of special interest is the "Beseda" national dance of Czechoslovakia at 5 p. m. Dancers, 32 in all, will be in colorful costumes of the native country. These dancers also go to the Texas Centennial.

A big dance will be held at night with music by Baca's Orchestra.

Softball League Gets Under Way in Cameron

Cameron's soft ball league staged a good opening Friday night at the High School Football field under the lights while Cameron Band added the music to the entertainment for the many fans. There were two gams of ball played. Both games were full of life and hits short and long were numerous. Several home runs were knocked. Errors will not be harped on this early in the season but they were also numerous which added to the zest of the games. One would be surprised at the energy some of the older boys of the town are able to put out. No doubt but what some of them felt it the next day.

W. B. Skelton's Texaco team defeated Jesse Brock's Magnolia team in an 8th inning rally 24 to 23. This game was a hectic battle from start to finish. The Magnolia team made six runs in the first inning and three in the second inning. Texaco made 7 runs in the second inning and drew up to par with Magnolia in the third when Mason Longmire clouted his second home run of the game. Allen Dodson knocked a homer for Magnolia in the fourth setting them off to the lead again. The end of the 7th found both teams with 17 scores. An extra inning was necessary to unlock the tie. Dodson and Swift started off

Texas Tax Burden Too Heavy to Bear

When Tom Campbell was Governor prior to 1910, the expenditures of the State Government at Austin were less than 10 Million Dollars a year, but it has constantly increased, and passed the 100 Million Dollar mark some 10 year ago, and reached the high peak of 111 Million Dollars in 1935—equal to two million bales of cotton at ten cents a pound.

The increase in the expenses were gradual; and the people were able to bear it for a while; but the collapse finally came, and then, Texas had wholesale failures and bankruptcies of banks, merchants and other small business enterprises. Mechanics, blacksmiths, plumbers, and other laborers in the cities and towns were thrown-out of employment with no means of suport for themselves and families. Mortgages on the farms and ranches increased; and more than a million acres of farm lands have been taken over for debt by the Insurance and Loan Cos., of the East. Homes and business property in the cities and towns have fared no better. The unbearable expenses brought the depression—the breadlines..

Every man and woman of oridinary intelligence should have known in advance that the Texas people could not pay a 100 million dollars taxes each year for State purposes and survive. It will be well to take a peep into the future. What will be the condition of the Texas people during the next five years, if our

G. C. Lucas Regrets Prominence Given Case Verdict Here

G. C Lucas of Minerva in a friendly protest to the Herald expressed regret over the prominence given a case in district court last week when Cecil Lucas took a 12 year sentence for an offense.

Mr. Lucas said that prominence of the story as handled, would tend to magnify the matter out of propotion to its importance and out of respect to the people on both sides of the case, he wished to intervene with this expression of regret. The Herald gladly prints this protest from Mr. Lucas who is a prominent and highly respected citizen of Milam county.

HALL OF RELIGION TO BE DEDICATED

Dallas, Texas, June 17—Dedication of the Hall of Religion, Centennial Exposition, Dallas, will be broadcast Sunday afternoon from 2:15 to 2:45 by Texas Quality Network, WFAA, WBAP, RPRC, WOAI, four of the largest radio stations in Texas, according to announcement of W. A. Scott, Hall of Religion director.

Right Reverend Harry T. Moore, Bishop of Dallas Episcopal church, will make the dedicatory address and L. B. Denning, president of the Lone Star Gas System who gave the building to the churches of Texas.

The Hall of Religion, given in recognition of the importantance of church influence in the conception and development of Texas, affords all religious groups a prominent and distinctive place in celebration of the state's 100th anniversary, according to Scott.

BAPTIST REVIVAL TO BEGIN HERE SUNDAY

A revival meeting at the First Baptist church, will begin on Sunday June 21st and will close July 1st, it was announced by Rev. Vernon G. Miles, pastor, who will do the preaching.

Efforts are being made to engage a singer. Night services will be held at 8 p. m. on the lawn. Day services will be held at 8 a. m. The morning subjects will be on prayer.

W. R. Hoover of Mercedes spent Monday in Cameron visiting in the home of Mrs. Hoover's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Plaster. Mrs. Hoover and the children have been here for several days.

PUBLISHER'S NOTICE

As a decided improvement in its service to advertisers, The Herald stepped up its mailing date one day and now the paper gets to all readers on Thursday morning. In order to keep us this schedule, it is necessary to observe time limits. The management regrets that it was unable to handle some very good business this week. Advertising copy should always be in the Herald office by Tuesday night. Any newspaper mailed Thursday night or Friday morning cannot reach readers before Friday or Saturday. This fact can be ascertained by consulting the local mail service. The Herald is Cameron's only Thursday morning newspaper.

VETS GET BACK PAY

All day Monday and Tuesday war veterans crowded the federal building to surrender their bonus certificates and to deposit their bonds for collection.

Monday was given over to registration of certificates while on Tuesday when night came $30,000 in bonds had been cashed by veterans.

The bonds are in $50 denominations. Checks are being mailed direct for fractional parts of the bonus. Check sare ranging from 11c up to $40.00.

It was estimated that the bonus bill would bring $750,000 to Milam county. Some of the veterans are holding their bonds. A $50 bond held to its maturity date in June, 1945 will be worth $63.00.

It was estimated that $200,000 would be paid through the Cameron postoffice.

Belmont C. Cluck was the first war veteran to surrender his certificate and receive his bonds.

TRUSTEE ELECTION FIGHT ON JUNE 23

Voters will decide on June 23rd whether the method of selecting school trustees will be changed from its present form.

Those who favor retaining the present appointive system and to have the board remain as it is, scratch the proposition "For" which leaves their ballots against any change.

Those who faor an elective system and dispensing with appointments and the present board, scratch the proposition "Against" which leaves their ballot for a change in the method of selecting trustees.

If the proposed change in systems wins at the polls all the members of the present board will be automatically put out of office and it will be necessary to call an election to name a board of trustees.

Nothing is changed by the election if it carries favorable for a change, except to give the city a new way to get trustees, that is elect them instead of appointing them. A favorable vote would have the effect, as stated, of disposing of the present board of 7 members.

The controversy arose over changes made in the faculty, combined with beilef on the part of some an elective method is better. Others oppose the proposition because they believe the appointive system makes for better board members, and because they believe the present board has accomplished much for the school.

Clarence Sapp, son of J. H. Sapp, visited in Cameron over the week end and was accompanied back to Houston by his sister, Mrs. C. M. Deadwyler and their niece, Miss Mae Griffith.

CHILD 3 FATALY CLUBS BABY

23 MONTHS OLD CHILD IS BEATEN

Norma Lee Percy, 23 months old negro child, was beaten to death with a stick of stove wood Monday on the Carl Tarwater farm near Baileyville, it was reporter to the Herald by Judge John Thweatt, Justice of the Peace at Maysfield, who held the inquest.

Judge Thweatt said that the mother of the child, Josie Bevers was in the field, leaving the little girl at the house where other children were playing. When Norma Lee began to cry the negro boy three years old whose name was not ascertained, got a stick of wood and began beating the baby. Three blows were struck, one of them crushing the baby's skull.

The boy explained that he was trying to make his half sister quit crying.

"Magnolia Lounge" at the Texas Centennial

The Magnolia Petroleum Company is building "Magnolia Lounge" on the Texas Centennial Exposition Grounds, Dallas, at a cost of more than $75,000, to provide rest and entertainment for weary sightseers.

Dallas, June 8.—Planned to typify the friendliness of the Southwest and the picturesque history of its various sections, the Magnolia Lounge is rapidly approaching completion on the Central Exposition Grounds of the Texas Centennial Fred M. Lege, Jr., vice president in charge of marketing for Magnolia Petroleum Company, announced this week. A two story building of ultra modern design, completely air-conditioned by its own 20 ton refrigeration plant, and an adjoining cactus garden will provide a unique method of restful entertainment for weary sightseers and will represent an expenditure of more than $75,000, Mr. Lege said.

Magnolia Lounge will offer a glimpse of the past and the present of the five states of Magnolialand and a sample of Texas hospitality. All Centennial visitors will be invited to relax in cool comfort, among the interesting surroundings, as guests of the Southwest's first petroleum producing, refining and marketing organization.

Entering the Central Centennial Exposition Grounds through the Grand Avenue entrance, visitors will find Magnolia Lounge near the Hall of Natural History, Fine Arts Gallery and other buildings in the civic and cultural group which surround a spacious lagoon. The approach to the building, an extensive terrace, is to be planted with many rare species of cactus native to the Southwest, with each plainly marked to show its nature, locale and history. The building itself is of stucco on concrete with hollow tile walls. An elevated promenade deck reached by an outside stairway extends over the sheltered area on the ground floor and will be equipped with comfortable chairs and tables for guests. Beautiful interior decorations and furnishings are by Neiman-Marcus of Dallas. Rest rooms for men and women will be handsomely finished in exotic marble and tile.

In the spacious lounge room where comfortable seats for 100 persons will be provided, continuous talking motion pictures will be projected on a translucent screen in such a manner that they will be clearly visable while the room is lighted. Throughout the past year Magnolia has been producing these pictures with the utmost care in order to give Centennial visitors a true picture of the Southwest as it is today with a historical background depicting its romantic past.

Completely non-commercial, the Magnolia Lounge has been planned in every detail solely to give the Centennial visitors a comfortable rendezvous where they may rest and at the same time become better acquainted with the great Southwest of yesterday. Magnolia invites Centennial visitors to "be our guests and rest at the Magnolia Lounge."

Tax Burden

lawmakers at Austin continue to spend a 100 million dollars a year for State purposes?

It is currently reported, that the State, after taxing everything in sight, and collecting more than 111 million dollars in 1935, is heavily in debt.

In addition to the above, the Old Age Pensions must be paid. This will amount to at least 20 million dollars a year. This favor was voted to the old people for loyal lifelong services rendered as Texans. It is a command from a noble people to their lawmakers at Austin, and the command must be obeyed.

The problem of raising the money for the expenses of the State Government with the 20 million dollars for the Old Age Pensions added will be a problem the lawmakers will find hard to solve.

Governor Allred has given out no plan for raising the money. The Governor has been absent from his office too much.

Mr. Hunter, Mr. Fischer, and Sen. Sanderford, candidates for Governor, have each issued their platforms, and each of them have a plan for raising the money.

They are each enthusiastic for the payment of the Old Age Pensions.

They are each in favor of exempting all real estate from taxation for State purposes.

It is true, the plan will exempt small farms and small homes in the cities and towns. It will go further, it will exempt one million acres of farm lands taken over by the insurance companies of the east; one million acres of pine lands, virgin and cut over; all real estate owned by railroads and interurbans; all real estate owned by oil companies, and public utilities; the industrial plants--such as compresses, oil mills, ice factories, and saw mills; hotels and other skyscrapers.

Under the plan, none of this property will be taxed to pay the Old Age Pensions.

The plan will reduce the State's revenue from 1935, 20 million dollars; for the Old Age Pensions, will make 40 million Dollars more taxes to be raised from some source.

Mr. Hunter's plan for raising the money, is a "one per cent gross income tax on higher brackets." This is in the nature of our gross receipt tax. It is doubted if the State will collect as much as 10 milion dollars a year from this tax.

Mr. Fischer favors a tax on the natural resources of the State in an amount that he claims will produce some 65 million dollars a year more than is now collected from such taxes. Mr. Fischer should be complemented for this plank in his platform. The natural resources should be taxed, and Mr. Fischer's plan adopted. But does Mr. Fischer think he can get a bill through the Legislature taxing natural resources to the extent he proposes? If he can not, then what will become of the "old people?"

Mr. Sanderford favors a three percent retail sales tax. This is a tax on the things the people must buy and use. We have had these tax for years. As the expenses of the State Government increased our lawmakers reduced the taxes on property and placed it on the things the people must buy and use. This was accomplished by means of the gasoline tax, gross receipt tax, poll tax, occuption tax, cigarette tax, franchise tax, fur tax, fish and oyster tax, beer and liquor tax, license fees, etc. The dealers add the tax to the price and the consumers pay it.

The tax rate on property for state purposes is now only $6.20 a thousand. The State collected in 1935, from taxes on land only 10 million dollars, from taxes on real estate in the cities and towns only 10 million dollars, and on the things the people consume, 61 millars. This tax on the things the people must buy and use is some times called a consumption tax, and some times a sales tax. The people who favor the tax claim for it that it is a "painless tax" because the people pay it and do not know it.

"The painless sales tax" of 61 million dollars a year imposed by our lawmakers has reduced the standard of living to the lowest level. The doctors report that in their practice it is common to find patients, men, women and children, who are suffering for the want of nourishment--for the want of something to eat. This should not be tolerated in the civilzed Christian land of Texas.

Exempt property and wealth and tax food and necessities should never be decreed or law in Texas.

Seth Wiese, 21, Is Hurt In Fall From Tree On His Farm

Seth Wiese, 21 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Wiese of Jones Prairie, is in the Cameron Hospital in a critical condition following an accidental fall from tree on the farm Sunday.

A party of hunters from Calvert visited the community near the Wiese farm Sunday hunting squirrel. Young Wiese volunteered to climb a tree when a squirrel disappeared in a hollow. He lost balance and fell 30 feet to the ground. His body and head struck the side of an embankment. It was believed he had suffered severe concussion.

Hospital physicians had taken x-ray pictures and it was expected that his exact condition would be ascertained late Monday.

Former Rockdalian Dies at Houston Home

The following from Houston Chronicle of Friday, June 5, concerns the recent death of two former popular Rockdalians:

Funeral services for Dr. Thomas F. Hudson, 76, retired physician, who died at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday at his home, 109 Funston, two months after the death of his wife, were held at 4 p. m., Thursday at the Evangelistic Temple with the Rev. E. N. Richey officiating. Burial was in the Hollywood Cemetery.

Hudson had been a resident of Houston for the past 40 years and owned and operated a drug store in the West End for years. Since the death of his wife, April 2, he had grown steadily weaker until his death last night.

He was a member of the first graduating class of A. & M. College, and was also a graduate of the medical college in Louisville, Kentucky.

He is survived by three sons, T. E. Hudson Jr., of Chicago; Enock B. Hudson of Little Rock, Arkansas; and James A. Hudson of Houston; several nieces and nephews and three grandchildren.—Rockdale Reporter.

Chevrolet Sales Top Record For All Time In May

Chevrolet dealers rounded out the greatest three months in the history of the Chevrolet Motor Company by delivering 129,816 new cars and trucks in May, W. E. Holler, vice-president and general sales manager, anounced today. May sales were the highst on record, exceeding those for the highest previous May, that of 1928 by 7,379 units.

The company's sales in April established a new all-time high for any month of any year, and the totals for March and for May approached that high point so closely as to concentrate within the past 90 days all three of Chevrolet's biggest months. Total sales for that period were 389,556 units, bringing the total for the year to date, from Jan. 1, to 535,634.

May used car sales by Chevrolet dealers set an all-time high of 229,223 units, Mr. Holler anonunced, resulting in a substantial decline in the stocks on hand and contributing to outlook for heavy new unit volume in June.

The award was made by the United States Chamber of Commerce. A plaque in recognition of it was presented to Chief Parker in Washington by President Roosevelt.

The Primrose

The name of the primrose has nothing to do with a rose. It is simply an erroneous form of the word "Primerole" which is an abbreviation of the French "primaverola," meaning the first flower of spring. Chaucer and Gower wrote of it as the "Primerole," but later this was corrupted to "Primrose."—Pearson's London Weekly.

New Dominions Added

At the coronation of the late King George there was worked into the royal stole, in addition to the rose, the thistle and the shamrock, the dragon of Wales, the lotus of India, the maple leaf of Canada, the wattle of Africa, the southern cross for Australia and the stars from New Zealand's flag.

E. D. Parnell, teacher of vocational agriculture, was a business visitor in Luling Thursday.

UNDER THE COURT HOUSE DOME

By Berenice McLerran

So many of us are unaware of the poverty that exists in Milam County. Miss Pearl Fulcrod, public Health Nurse, while on business at the court house Tuesday morning told of a case in this county where there was a man 69 years of age, sick and helpless. In the home there was not even a chair to sit in, and the man was lying on some slate over which had been placed some old coats and sweaters.

There is no better way whereby we can help the needy than through our public health nurse, Miss Fulcrod. She can use food and bedding and many other useful items in her work.

"Honor thy father and thy mother"—but how many children are there that do that.

There are mothers and fathers that do not deserve the heartaches that their children cause them—still there are children who are selfish and do not care how much suffering their parents have to endure.

If the tears of mothers and fathers shed in the court room alone could wash away crimes, there would be no crimes. That is impossible, but it is not impossible for the son or daughter to think before they commit a crime.

Dr. Newton Indorsed By Limestone Medical Society for Senator

Dog Carries News of Fatal Accident

Marlin, Texas.—Faster than any human messenger, a German police dog belonging to the family of J. L. Stuart brought home the news of a son's fatal accident.

Stuart was awakened at 2:30 a. m. by the scratching and howling of the dog on the front steps. He went to the door and found the dog holding in his mouth the hat of Boliver Stuart, thirty-three.

Some time later Stuart discovered that his son had died in a local hospital, of injuries incurred when he was struck by a passenger train while walking along a curve in the tracks.

SPIES IN BRITAIN AGAIN STIR ALARM

Tensity Is Increased by Rearmament Activity.

London.—As in pre-war days, England has become once again a playground for the ancient but ever new and always fascinating game of espionage and counter-espionage.

"Spy hysteria," fanned by sensational newspapers, gets ever more contagious. The atmosphere of warclouds over Europe makes a feasible background for the wildest stories.

Spies are alleged to be responsible for the sabotage of the battleship Royal Oak and the submarine Oberon last December and of the cruiser Cumberland in recent weeks.

Britain's billion-and-a-half-dollar rearmament program is said to be responsible for the sudden increased activity in espionage. The mention of secret high-speed airplanes during the sittings of the arms commission, the details of the government's new air program, which is said to include robot pilots for bombers, and the frequent hints of new air fighting developments and discoveries of anti-aircraft weapons all suggest profitable fields for spying activities.

The preliminary hearing for espionage of Dr. Hermann Goertz, a German citizen who described his activities as those of a novelist looking for material, provided much excitement.

The general situation was aggravated greatly when, following the violent death of the vice-trader, Max Kassel, known as "Max the Red," disclosures were made as to the ease with which vice gangs obtained British citizenship for undesirables of all nationalities.

The latest official report bearing on the subject is that the British secret service will be allocated several thousand pounds extra in the budget estimate, said to be deemed necessary for its increased activity.

Scotland Yard does a great deal of the work connected with the frustrating of spies but the secret service also is an important factor.

Among the victims of spy hysteria are the political refugees from Continental countries who mostly have no fixed occupation in Britain, some of whom do not speak good English.

Phantom Light Appears Only in Foggy Weather

Pasco, Wash.—"The phantom light of Ringold" has been seen again, according to word reaching here from that section.

Long an unsolved mystery in the Ringold district, the phantom light has been noticed in barren hills as well as on populated highways. Citizens of high repute have sworn to its authenticity. It appears, according to tales releated here, only in foggy or rainy weather.

The light assertedly gives the impression of an automobile with only one headlight. Innumerable motorists have reported running in a ditch to avoid being struck by an oncoming car—only to have a beam of light flash past them and continue on down the highway.

Motorists driving high-powered automobiles allegedly have pursued the phantom light, only to have it disappear when they approached it. A search for tracks or some plausible solution of the mystery always has resulted in failure, according to reports.

Chinese Girl Spies on Smugglers at Shanghai

Shanghai.—A twenty-one-year-old Cantonese girl, who applied for a man's position in the preventive section of the Chinese maritime customs, now enjoys the distinction of being the first and so far the only woman member.

She is Miss Me Tsing-Fong. Her task is to prevent smuggling, especially by women passengers arriving in Shanghai on board steamers. Her male companions declare that she is very efficient and hard-working.

Graduate of a Catholic school in Canton, where she learned to speak English, Miss Me arrived in Shanghai several years ago.

Dog's Cordial Welcome Proves Fatal to Robber

Chicago.—A burglar entered the Plaisance drug store and was welcomed by Snappy, a Doberman Pinscher puppy.

Snappy was so happy to have a visitor that he romped and barked joyously around the darkened store. He became so ebullient that the night clerk at the adjoining hotel was aroused and called the police.

A squad responded and killed Snappy's visitor.

L VAN PERKINS AT HOME IN CAMERON

L. Van Perkins, former state commander of the American Legion, has returend to his home in Cameron after an absence of 17 months spent in the United States Reformatory in El Reno, Oklahoma.

He arrived in Cameron on Thursday afternoon of last week from Fort Worth where he was met by his wife and children. Mr. Perkins was convicted at Waco in 1934 in connection with alleged irregularities in handling compesation checks for veterans.

Since the loss of 58 pounds of weight, Perkins looks years younger, and seemed happy an dsmiled frequently as he chatted with friends at his home on the morning after his arrival.

The Perkins home is a nice modern house and is located just a block from the Yoe High school where Perkins was principal, coach and a teacher for a number of years.

Negro Is Held On Assault To Murder Following Shooting

Charges of assault with intent to murder were filed against John Henry Jones, a Cameron negro, in court on Friday morning, after Howard Riggens was treated for gunshot wounds.

Jones told officers that he shot Riggens after finding Riggens and Jones' wife in a car near Skeezix on Thursday night. Riggens was shot in the left shoulder and the negro woman in the hand.

PIANO RECITAL

On Friday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock in the parlors of the First Methodist parsonage a piano recital was given by Miss Alice Rylander, pupil of Mrs. Charles Sprott.

Assisting Miss Rylander was Billy Triggs. Greeting the guests on arrival were Misses Frances McDermott and Catherine Mode.

Miss Rylander gave an interesting program of several classical piano numbers.

Billy Triggs, accompanied by Miss Elizabeth Sprott, sang "Silvia" and to the accompaniment of Miss Arnett Ryan sang "Caro Mio Beni." The program was concluded with "Serenade," "To An Evening Star" and "Berceuse."

A social hour followed when the guests were invited into the dining room where Miss Sprott, Frances McDermott and Catherine Mode served punch from a lace laid board centered with pink queens wreath and pink zeanas.

Roses and crepe myrtle were used throughout the reception rooms for decorations.

The program was interesting and guests were enthusiastic in complimenting these young artists for such a pleasant musical treat.

Candidate For

STATE SENATOR

To Those Interested in Old Age Assistance:

Bert Ford made the mention in the State Affairs Committee which attached a provision to the Old Age Assistance Bill providing that sufficient revenue should be raised to pay the Old Age Assistance in full without increasing the taxes on real estate and if elected State Senator will continue to work to that end. He favors rendering the same assistance to the needy, blind, dependent and neglected children and others totally and permanently disabled who are in need, regardless of age, but is opposed to any increase in taxes for any other purpose. A vote for Bert Ford is a real service to your district and State.

F. W. FISCHER TO SPEAK IN MARLIN JUNE 20TH

F. W. Fischer, candidate for governor, who spoke at the court house in Cameron recently, will return to Central Texas for a speaking engagement at Marlin, Saturday, June 20 at 8 p. m. W. E. Rogers of Marlin his campaign manager in this section says he is expecting a large delegation of Milam county citizens in Marlin for the rally.

Fischer advocates taxing oil, gas, sulphur and other natural resources to pay every old man and women over 65 a pension of $15 a month.

He promises a "new deal for taxpayers" in his plan for raising revenue inasmuch as the present enormous tax burdens lie heavily on farms, ranches and other real estate, he points out.

In addition to paying old age pensions, taxing natural resources would he says, proide means for lifting the state ad valorem tax off of all real estate and increasing the school funds to pay teachers higher salaries. Since 90 per cent of Texas' natural resources are shipped out of the state to be used by other states and foreign countries, citizens in those areas would pay 90 per cent of the taxes of these products, thus providing approximately $100,000,000 of new money for the state.

The Cameron Band motored to Hearne on Tuesday night to participate in a program at the Hearne Athletic field.

BOTCHED HANGING PROMPTS MAN TO BECOME EXPERT

"Humane Hangman" Officiates at 69 Executions Without Mishap.

Chicago.—Portly Phil Hanna, middle aged Illinois farmer, calls himself the "humane hangman."

Hanna explained his claim to that title recently at Indianapolis when he officiated at his sixty-ninth hanging. This was the execution of George W. Barrett, the Kentucky feudist and robber who killed a federal agent.

"A brutal hanging poorly done," which he witnessed as a boy, decided Hanna. Thence he became an expert at putting men to death.

"The brutality of that botched job," said Hanna, "made me decide to learn exactly how it should be done and the most effective and painless manner. For a while I fooled around with the rope plow lines as I worked in the fields of my farm and finally I knew I had it. I tried it out on dummies until I was convinced it would work and then offered my services. I never failed."

Never Springs Trap.

Hanna, who lives at Epworth, Ill., has never sprung the trap, however. His work is over when the hood and noose are adjusted. He said he has received no pay for any execution. He furnishes the rope and also the hoods, which are made by his wife.

He is considerate of the last wishes of the condemned men and always visits them before the hanging.

"It is not a pleasant job," he said, "but as long as it is the law and it must be done it should be performed as humanely as possible. That is my only interest."

The hanging of Barrett was the first by the federal government since pioneer days and it may be the last. A bill is before congress that provides for execution by electrocution.

The murder for which Barrett, was executed was that of Nelson B. Klein, federal agent, at West College Corner, Ind., last August 16. Klein was shot down as he sought to arrest Barrett on a stolen car charge. Barrett pleaded at his trial that he mistook Klein for a feudist seeking his life. Six killings have been attributed to him, including that of his mother. He was married five times. During his imprisonment his glass eye had to be taken from him to prevent an attempt to break and eat the glass. He wanted to commit suicide.

Calm to the Last.

The same frozen calm which Barrett displayed through his trial, with the exception of one or two brief rages, remained with him until the last. He was wounded in the legs by an agent who accompanied the slain Klein and attended the trial in a wheel chair.

Barrett was carried on a stretcher to the tented scaffold in the Marian county jail yard. He died in a stupor. It was reported unofficially that he had been given an opiate.

A half hour before the hanging Barrett, gray haired and fifty-five years old, received newspaper men in his cell. He was attired in borrowed pajamas, in which he was hanged. He said he died with no enmities, content in the Catholic faith he embraced a few weeks ago. He shook hands with one of the guards whom he had disliked, and said good-by to the reporters, calling them by their nicknames.

Cowboys Mix Babies; Takes Week to Unscramble Them

Ozona, Texas.—One of the greatest mix-ups of babies ever known in the ranch region of West Texas took place some years ago and the affair is well remembered by George W. Nix, veteran cowboy, who at the time was employed on the Gibbons ranch. It was on the occasion of a big dance at the Savage ranch, which was attended by young married couples, boisterous cowboys and ranch girls for 100 miles around.

When the young mothers arrived at the ranch house they put their babies to sleep and left them in a room while they danced. The suggestion was made by a prankish cowboy that the wraps which the babies wore be changed about. This was quickly done, and when the dance was over each mother picked up the baby she thought belonged to her, judging it from its familiar wraps and position on the beds.

There were 20 babies in the bunch, Nix said, and not one of them escaped being taken by the wrong mother. It was not until the women arrived home and got a glimpse at the face of the youngster that she discovered she had the wrong baby.

There were no telephones or automobiles in those days and for more than a week there was frantic riding to and from ranch houses in efforts to straighten out the tangle. Exchanges were finally made, but the incensed mothers did not find out until years afterward who perpetrated the joke—if it was a joke.

This incident was used by Owen Wister in his novel, "The Virginian."

Dog With False Teeth Passes 18th Birthday

Montreal, Que.—Peter, a fox terrier, believed to be the only dog in Canada to have a set of false teeth, has celebrated his eighteenth birthday.

Peter began suffering from indigestion six years ago, and his master, Dr. G. Martin Rondeau, a dentist, traced the cause to bad teeth. The dog recovered after Doctor Rondeau extracted the decaying teeth and replaced them with a specially made set of false teeth.

CAMERON FIREMEN GO TO CONVENTION

Cameron firemen left Tuesday for Fort Worth to attend the state fire convention.

The team is composed of Oscar Schiller, Albert Richter, Edwin (Zeke) Brod, Jerry Mikula, Bert Nicholson and "Blonde" Brashear.

The races will be on Thursday. The Cameron team won first places in the races in 1935 and also in 1933, and hope to win again this year.

Others going from Cameron to the convention besides the Cameron team were: Mrs. Bert Nicholson, Joe Richter, Mrs. Oscar Schiller, John Eanes, Mrs. Edwin Brod and Frank Richter.

Yorktown won the cup race at the Texas Volunteer Firemen's Convention in Fort Worth.

Belton and Hearne tied for fourth place and Cameron failed to score her usual high record of good time. The Cameron team won the cup last year.

Mysterious Fires Investigated By Officers Here

Two fires within five days in Milam county and from which heavy losses resulted are being investigated by Sheriff Max Kennedy.

On Friday night at 12 o'clock the barn of Fritz Potsky at Cross Roads was destroyed by fire, burning nine large hogs to death, and 300 bushels of corn, 350 bales of hay, two ton of maize, harness and hay press were also destroyed.

Sheriff Kennedy reported that near the barn he found a quart bottle out of which red gasoline had been poured with only a small quantity left in the bottle.

On Tuesday night, the three room slaughter house belonging to Chas. Kirk on Highway 36, on the edge of the city limits west of Cameron was destroyed by fire. The slaughter house was just recently built. Origin of the fire was unknown.

Bentley Epperson of Palestine, son of Dr. and Mrs. A. S. Epperson, is reported improving from his emergency operation for appendicitis operation in the Cameron hospital Tuesday.

NO "SOUND EFFECTS" WITH ELECTROLUX, THANK GOODNESS!

SILENCE is more than a comfort

...IT'S A PROMISE OF LASTING

EFFICIENCY

Thanks to the utterly different way it operates — without machinery, without noise — only Electrolux can bring you all these big, long-life advantages:

- NO MOVING PARTS TO WEAR
- LASTING EFFICIENCY
- FULLEST FOOD PROTECTION
- SAVINGS THAT PAY FOR IT
- CONTINUED LOW OPERATING COST

LISTEN! But you'll hear no noise from the operation of Electrolux! A tiny gas burner takes the place of all moving parts in this permanently silent refrigerator! This simpler, more efficient way of refrigerating is the reason why more than half a million American families have already chosen Electrolux . . . why more and more families are choosing it every year!

For Electrolux insures an unusually low operating cost . . . and this cost will never be increased through the inefficiency of moving, wearing parts. What's more, you can count on a minimum of repairs with Electrolux . . . for parts that do not move cannot wear.

And Electrolux brings you other savings! It provides constant food-preserving temperatures 24 hours a day . . . plenty of ice cubes. Owners report that Electrolux actually saves enough on food bills and on running cost to pay for itself.

See Electrolux on display at our showrooms. The new 1936 models are more convenient, more beautiful than ever. And they bring you all those famous operating advantages that make Electrolux the most economical refrigerator any family can own. Come in!

FARM CLUB NEWS

Mrs. A. O. Gibson, demonstrator for the Sandy Creek Club reports the building of her clothes closets, complete with shelves, rod, and racks, with no cost at all. Scrap lumber was used and a friend gave the ceiling paper to paper the inside. Mrs. Gibson reports that 22 of her cooperators have foundation patterns complete since the club was organized in March.

Since last September, Miss Werdna Wallace, demonstrator for the Yarrellton Club has cut 46 foundation patterns, given two demonstrations for cutting various sleeve patterns, one demonstration for altering sleeve patterns. A total of 89 people have been helped in clothing work during the year by Miss Wallace.

Keeping a clothing record helps to keep the family finances on a balance according to Miss Elizabeth Helpert, demonstrator for the Burlington Club. A total cost for clothing the family of 10 shows an expense of $128.65. Besides keeping the family expense record Elizabeth has also remodeled two clothes closets and conveniently equipped each to care for the family clothing.

Mrs. Jim Hawk, demonstrator for the Clarkson Club stresses the value of mothers providing a rod for hanging children's clothing and in having this rod low enough for children to hang up their own clothing.

Before being selected as demonstrator for the Curry Club Miss Ethel Angel states she had never made but one dress. "Now I make all my dresses since I have my foundation pattern, I am sure of a fit," Miss Angel states.

The entire cost of my clothes closet including nails, screws, locks, hinges, varnish and tacks amounted to $4.20 states Mrs. Leo Wilde, demonstrator. "I obtained the money by selling a baby bed that had been discarded, three hens and I had fourteen dimes that had been given me," reports Mrs. Wilde.

Future Farmers See Roosevelt On Luling Trip

A group of future farmers went to Luling last Thursday with Mr. E. D. Parnell, vocational agricultural teacher.

The group left Cameron early Thursday morning and made a visit to the Round Rock cheese plant. From here they visited the Centennial Exposition at Austin. After eating dinner at Austin they visited the Heep Jersey farm and here looked at a champion Jersey cow, other animals, and the farm. From here the boys and Mr. Parnell went to Luling and visited the Luling Foundation Farm. After looking over the farm the group went down to the railroad station and saw President Roosevelt. They then went back to the farm and loaded up a calf which they brought home with them.

Extension Service Demonstration In Flea Hopper Control

Demonstration work is to be carried on in Milam County in connection with the control of Cotton Flea Hopper through Sulphur dust applications. We will have three farmers in the County who have agreed to carry out the demonstrations. They are as follows: Frank Sherrill on highway near Ben Arnold; Dave Link, near Silver City; and J. M. Gilchrist near San Gabriel.

On each of these farms two plots of five acres each will be dusted about every seven days using from 12 to 20 pounds of sulphur per acre and making about five applications during the season.

Five acres between these plots will be untreated to be used as a check plot.

The County Agent has assisted Mr. R. B. Strandtmann, (enternologist) in selection of these demonstration farms and is assisting in making weekly observations, at the present time they have found flea hoppers sufficiently abundant to justify dusting, and the first application of sulphur will be made next week on all these farms.

Any farmer who is interested in these demonstrations is invited to visit these farms any time during the season.

George Banzhaf,
County Agent of Milam county

AD HALL 4-H CLUB GIRLS

The Ad Hall 4-H Club girls met at the home of Mrs. Lawhorn, sponsor, June 12. There were ten members and three visitors present, the visitors being Mrs. Shepard, Marie Ruzicka, and Helen Andres of San Antonio.

The house was called to order, roll called and minutes read and approved.

Plans were completed for Short Course funds. The meeting was then turned over to Miss Strange and she gave a demonstration on canning tomatoes. The meeting then adjourned.

The public is cordially invited to come to the big party June 20 at the Ad Hall School House. The party is to be given by Ad Hall 4-H girls. No admission will be charged.

PEOPLE

MAKE THE TELEPHONE SYSTEM

Poles and wires and switchboards alone don't make a telephone system. You've got to have people.

You've got to have men and women and children that want to talk with each other. You've got to have operators sitting night and day before the switchboards. You need to have linemen willing to go out when the lines are down, and work with a 40-mile gale lashing sleet and snow into their faces.

It's folks that make a telephone system. When you figure out why service is better than it used to be, you find it's just people at work—men working problems out on American Telephone & Telegraph Company's staff, and inventors in Bell Laboratories, and the like.

The goal of the people who work for the Bell System is to furnish the people who use telephones with a service that is fast, and clear, and moderate in its cost to the user.

FUTURE FARMERS VISIT LULING FARM

Five members of the Future Farmer Chapter, accompanied E. D. Parnell, Vocational Agriculture teacher, on a 250 mile educational tour Thursday that took the group to a number of places of interest in Central and South Texas.

The group left Cameron early Thursday morning, stopped at Taylor for an hour, then drove to Round Rock and visited the cheese factory before driving to Austin for a visit at the University of Texas Centennial exhibits. The group spent two hours viewing the Gregory Gym collection of exhibits. The entire gymnasium is filled with displays of mounted animals, paintings, oil field models and man other things of interest. The central unit gives a composite picture of the natural history of Texas. The groups of exhibits are naturally divided into botany, zoology, geology, antropology and business.

From Austin the group drove to the Heep Jersey Farm, show place of the nation, where some of the finest Jersey cattle in the United States are owned. The boys had the opportunity of seeing the famous cow Willonyx Dandy Girl, a cow with a gold medal and two medals of merit made while on official test. Many other famous Jersey cattle are owned on the Heep Farm. A milking parlor, a new innovation in Texas milk production is in use at the farm. Three cows are milked at a time in a plate glass enclosed compartment and spectators may sit comfortably and watch the process. Certified milk is produced at the farm and sold in Austin and San Antonio.

From the Heep Farm the boys motored down to San Marcos, thence to Martindale where the majority of the certified cotton seed breeding farms are located, and then on to the Luling Foundation Farm, where two hours were spent studying the farming operations under the management of W. W. Cardwell.

The Foundation Farm was established by Edgar B. Davis, millionaire oil man, to improve farm conditions in South and Central Texas. The farm contains 1,200 acres, of which 1,000 is in cultivation. Purebred Hereford beef cattle, Duroc Jersey hogs, Jersey Cattle, Bronze Turkeys, White Leghorn hens, and Hampshire Rambouillet crossbred sheep make up the livestock of the farm and assist in disposing of the 700 acres of feed crops grown each year. Alfalfa is grown in abundance, silos were being filled with sudan grass, a new practice for that farm, and hegari, cane clover, and similar crops make up the remainder of the feed crops. The boys were shown a flock of 1,700 young turkeys which have been developed to almost half grown size with a loss of less than a hundred. The poults are brooded artificially, and hens, besides being fed laying mash, are kept under lights to encourage early egg production. Most of the poults were hatched in February.

A milking parlor, similar to the one at the Heep Farm, is also used at the Foundation Farm, certified, pasteurized milk being produced and distributed in San Antonio.

From Luling the group returned direct to Cameron. Those making the trip with Parnell were James Leath, Bobby Batte, Roland Boedeker, Lawrence Lotz, and Billie Baldwin.

NAVAL AIR CHIEF

Capt. Arthur B. Cook, commander of the aircraft carrier Lexington, who was selected by President Roosevelt to direct the navy's drive to lift its air force on a par with any naval armada in the world. He will advance to the rank of rear admiral when he assumes his new post.

BUILD UP DAIRY HERD IS PLAN

As a means of improving the quality of dairy cattle in Milam county, the Cameron Chamber of Commerce has purchased a registered Jersey bull from the Luling Foundation Farm, Luling, Texas and he is located at the H. G. Shepherd farm near Ad Hall. Mr. Shepherd will serve as custodian of the bull for the Chamber of Commerce. A reasonable service fee will be charged and farmers ar urged to use him in building up their herds. The young bull has a fine pedigree and should prove to be a good breeder. He is from a cow with a register of merit record of 543 pounds butterfat in 205 days as a three year old, and is sired by Combination Pretty Lad, a son of the famous King Ranch bull, Combination Premier, that sold for $12,500 when he was 13 years of age Combination Pretty Lad is 15 years of age and is still i nactive service in Luling. He has 67 daughters with register of of merit records, and has proved himself to be a breeder of rare quality.

It is expected that the Chamber of Commerce will buy other bulls from time to time if enough interest is shown in breeding cows to the first one purchased, Albert Collins, chamber of commerce president, says.

BEATS THE METER!

America's Most Beautiful Refrigerator

THE moment you see the new Fairbanks-Morse Refrigerator with its patented CONSERVADOR—you'll understand how it brings amazing economy to refrigerator operation.

The CONSERVADOR is a shelf-lined inner door behind the main door, for storing most frequently used foods. It keeps the cold air from rushing out of the main compartment when you open the main door to get one or more of these items. The motor runs less. Your electric bill is lower—year after year. Undoubtedly the CONSERVADOR saves you more money than any other improvement ever made in refrigeration. And as for convenience—you've never seen its equal!

By all means see the CONSERVADOR before you buy any refrigerator. You'll be glad you did. Prices will pleasantly surprise you too!

Lady's Painful Trouble Helped By Cardui

Why do so many women take Cardui for the relief of functional pains at monthly times? The answer is that they want results such as Mrs. Herbert W. Hunt, of Hallsville, Texas, describes. She writes: "My health wasn't good. I suffered from cramping. My pain would be so intense it would nauseate me. I would just drag around, so sluggish and 'doless.' My mother decided to give me Cardui. I began to mend. That tired, sluggish feeling was gone and the pains disappeared. I can't praise Cardui too highly because I know it helped me." . . . If Cardui does not help YOU, consult a physician.

Texan Claims He Has Santa Anna's Trunk

Mineola, June 12—Just to keep the records straight, L. D. Bertillion would like the world to know he has the original trunk brought to Texas by Gen. Santa Anna of Mexico.

Bertillion said he wired the president of Mexico: "I have an antique collection, among which is the original trunk brought to Texas by Gen-Santa Anna, but due to the fact that a man plans to exhibit a fake trunk at the Texas Centennial as that of Santa Anna, I will restore to you the real trunk free of cost, provided you will pay the transportation charge."

In a letter to the Associated Press, Bertillion made it clear he opposed any commercialization of spurious antiques.

DAY NURSERY IS USEFUL PROGRAM

Cameron has been the fortunate location for a W. P. A. project known as a Day Nursery since last fall. It is housed in the second floor of the Old School Building, and from 8 o'clock to 3 each day, thirty little children are cared for after most approved methods without cost to the parents or to the community.

Through the efforts of Mr. E. A. Perrin the school was secured for Cameron, and required tables, chairs, small cots, dishes and a cook stove were secured through the generosity of the Chamber of Commerce.

Mrs. Fern Harrison is in charge and the children's play is supervised, their meal at noon served, the mid-morning tomato juice and afternoon cracker and milk ready for all, and from 12 to 2 each little child is on his or her cot for rest or sleep.

Mrs. Florence Markham is the one who does the cooking of the food specified in menu that comes from Austin headquarters of W. P. A.

Medical examination has been given by local physicians and Miss Fulcrod, Public Health Nurse is a frequent visitor.

Visit the children and you will want to help with their playground equipment which is very meagre, or perhaps you will interest a group in supplying screens or bars to protect the children from falling. Windows can only be opened at the top until some protection is provided.

"SILLY BILLIES"

Bert Wheeler and Robert Woolsey, who have firmly established themslves as the outstanding comedy team of the screen, probably top all their previous vehicles with "Silly Billies," their newest RKO Radio film.

This side-splitter comes to the Cameron Theatre Tuesday June 23 with a reputation of being the funniest comedy ever made. Crammed with new highly original situations of which the two funsters take full advantage and laid in picturesque settings of the Indian Territory during the hectic hegira of '49, the film is a roaring delight from start to finish.

If you can imagine Wheeler and Woolsey as a pair of quack dentists who set out to pull all the teeth in the Wild West and who successfully encounter a stage-coach hold-up and a real estate promoter, save a wagon train from an Indian attack, get captured by Indians, are nearly drowned in quicksand and tortured at the stake, and narrowly escape being lynched, you can get a faint idea of their experiences.

Departing from the customary farce treatment of feature comedies, "Silly Billies" builds up these episodes into thrillingly realistic scenes, which by contrast make the stars' antics all the funnier.

This method of Alternating legitimate thrills with comedy has been deftly followed by Director Fred Guiol. Dorothy Lee makes a delightful pioneer heroine.

SURGEONS ROUT THE CAMERON ICERS HERE

Two teams of the best Semi-pro talent in Central Texas met Sunday at Lawless Green Field. For batteries Temple had lefty Webb pitching and Babe Farrow catching. The Icers had Wafford and Adams pitching and Pete Dowling catching. Temple drew first blood in the second inning when Craft hit a double and scored on a single by Farrow. Burt Jackson, Icer short stop scored a run in the third inning when he doubled; went to third on a single by Pollock and scored on an error by the left fielder. In the sixth inning Craft set one over the right field wall for a homer with one man on for Temple. In the same inning, Farrow got on base on an error and scored on Branun's two base hit for Temple. In Cameron's part of the sixth inning. Wofford knocked a home run with one man on base. In the eighth inning Wofford failed to bring the old ball in with the proper twist on it on account of a blister he had worn on his finger. After getting in a pretty bad hole he was relieved by Adams. Adams got down to business and got the Surgeons out but they had made 7 runs. The Icers made 2 runs in the 8th inning but they could not overcome the lucky inning the Surgeons had in the 8th. The game ended with Temple 12 runs and the Icers 7.

Temple Surgeons 12 runs; 12 hits and 4 errors.

Cameron Icers, 7 runs, 14 hits and 4 errors.

Score by innings:

Surgeons	010	013	070	—12
Icers	001	022	020	—7

Home runs: Craft, Wofford; two base hits, Craft, Pollock, B. Jackson, Dowling, Wofford, Branun and C. Smith. Wofford struck out four, walked four; Adams struck out one, walked one; Webb struck out 8 walked 1.

Wednesday night the Cameron Icers go to Austin to vie with Nu-Icy team of that city. Next Sunday will find the Icers in Temple doing their utmost to even the victory with the surgeons.

These pupils were perfect in attendance and dserve the same honorable mention given to those published last week, and it is our pleasure to so recognize them.

E. A. Perrin, Superintendent.

OUR TOWN

ing message. Not to care for the things we can't obtain is to resign, give up, be supine. And when we quit in life's struggle we pay a dear price, indeed, for our meagre mete of happiness. Most of us perhaps would rather keep on fighting. There is joy in the fight; joy at last to know there is fight in us.

Let us reverse the formula.

"If you care enough for the things you have obtained, you will be supremely happy."

The humble farmer, on his little farm—if he loves that farm—may be happy beyond compare. If he loves it well, he will till it well, intelligently, thoroughly, and it will yield him rich store. The widowed mother, in the little cottage, has her children, and if she loves them well they will be her life. The clerk at the desk, if he loves his work, will be happy in it.

To be truly happy in our lot we need not be contented. Indeed, happiness and contentment, while we keep moving on life's highway, are not to be reconciled. If we love the work we do we shall be thrilled not alone to do it well, but to do it better.

Far away fields are always green. Only after many fruitless pilgrimages is the simple truth borne home that if the field at our door is not attractive and verdant it is because we do not water its shrubs and grasses. If we love our field we will tend it. And more important, if we tend it we will come to love it.

And this to then in whom ambition burns: Only by the degree to which you prove yourself true to the modest task of today can fit you, or inspire others to entrust you with, greater duties tomorrow.

40 HOUR DEVOTION SERVICE BURLINGTON

One of the outstanding Catholic devotions will be opened at St. Michael's Church, Burlington, on Sunday morning at the 7 o'clock Mass.

This will be a High Mass with Rev. T. F. O'Sullivan as the celebrant. The Mass will be sung by St. Michael's Choir. The Solemn Devotion is in honor of the time that our Lord's sacred body was in the tomb, and naturally centers around the "Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist." It is a time of special prayer in every parish, a time when every devout Christian gives expression of their loyalty and love for "Christ their King."

Many of the visiting clergy will participate in this great solemnity.

Rev. P. J. O'Reilly of St. Mary's Church in Temple will speak at the services on Sunday evening at 7:45 p. m.

Rev. J. J. Kearnie of Waco will speak on Monday evening at 7:45 p. m.

Rev. A. T. Nicholson of Hempstead will officiate at the closing on Tuesday morning at 7 a. m.

Benjamin A. Howell Noted Pioneer Was Father T. A. Howell

Centennial year in Texas brings to mind many interesting events, stories of the pioneers and the men who made America.

An interesting story of an interesting man comes to the Herald this week. The pioneer is Benjamin A. Howell, father of T. A. Howell of Cameron.

Benjamin Howell was not only a Confederate soldier but a veteran of the Mexican war. He was 17 when he fought in the Mexican war and Captain Robert E. Lee who was latter to become leader of the Confederate Armies was then a Captain and Mr. Howell served under him.

Some old documents of interest were shown this week by T. A. Howell of this city. Banjamin Howell was a native of North Carolina, born near Raleigh. He spent his life in Roberson county, North Carolina where he held a number of public offices.

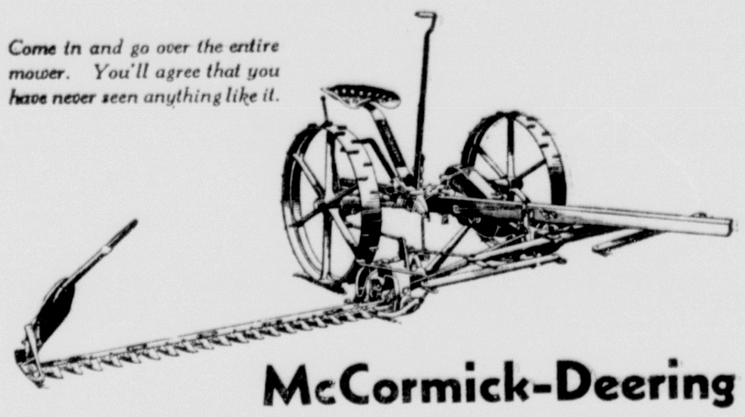
Among the papers is an old page from a docket showing transfer of prisoners when Mr. Howell was sheriff of Roberson county. The date of the transfer was December 15, 1868. A certificate of his election on May 16, 1868, as sheriff of Roberson county was signed by Brevet Major General, commanding the second military district in North Carolina.

Later he served as Postmaster in Brooklin, North Carolina. His commission signed by John A. J. Creswell, then Postmaster General, is in possession of his son in Cameron. He was appointed Postmaster in 1872.

After the war when government had been restored by the state, Mr. Howell was appointed Colonel of the 58th Regiment of North Carolina Militia by Governor W. W. Holden. This was on September 18, 1868. A band of outlaws known as the Lowery gang were then terrorizing the state around Roberson county. Colonel Howell, a brave man, wiped out the gang and thus justified the faith of the governor.

These documents are highly valued by Mr. Howell in Cameron. They indicate the prominence of his father and tell a vivid story of how this pioneer's life spanned the most daring period in the history of America.

Tommy Howell, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Howell, visited in Cameron. He is now with the Capitol Theatre in Dallas. This is his first visit here since accepting this position a year ago.



Come in and go over the entire mower. You'll agree that you have never seen anything like it.

McCormick-Deering
No. 7 Enclosed-Gear Mower

WE are anxious to have all of our friends see the New McCormick-Deering No. 7 Enclosed-Gear Mower. We think it is one of the finest pieces of farm equipment we have ever sold!

Everybody who has seen it says they never had any idea that a mower could be built as this one is.

For example: The entire operating mechanism, including drive gears, differential, and countershafts, is assembled compactly in an oil-tight gear housing and runs in a bath of oil. There are four high-grade roller bearings. Operation is so smooth and noiseless that you can scarcely hear the light hum of the sickle!

Special oil seals at the ends of the main axle and flywheel shaft, and the oil-tight gear box prevent leakage and protect all working parts against the entrance of dirt and other abrasive materials. Floating action of cutter bar provides ample play without disturbing knife registration.
